Cabell Clan

Gen. Charles P. Cabell is among the 1925 graduates at the Military Academy and with Mrs. Cabell and "the family" plans to attend events at West Point starting June 5. Gen. and Mrs. Cabell will be accompanied by her sister, Mrs. S. DeHymel McIlwaine of Pasadena, Calif., when they motor to the Point June 5.

Also in the party are to be Brig. Gen. Donald Dunford, classmate and former roommate of Gen. Cabell, and Mrs. Dunford, sister of Mrs. Cabell.

Air Force 1st Lt. Charles P. Cabell, Jr., is coming from Lake Charles, La., where he is stationed at Chenault Air Force Base, and will join the caravan to West Point. It will be the second class reunion for him since his 1958 graduation. Lt. Cabell has been assigned to duty at Castle Air Force Base in California later in the summer. Joining the party for the jaunt to West Point is Miss Alice Louise Hull of New Orleans.

Miss Katie Cabell and her brother Ben will be absentees in the family circle at West Point. Daughter Katie plans to enjoy the Navy festivities and will be in Annapolis for June Week. Young Mr. Ben deHymel Cabell, a student at the School of Foreign Service at Georgetown University, has much to accomplish before leaving at the close of the school term for Europe. He expects to return to Georgetown to enter his junior year there in the autumn.
